

CITY OF HAHIRA

TELEPHONE LICENSE TAX ORDINANCE

Each telephone company operating in the City of Hahira, Georgia shall pay an occupational license tax in the amount of three percent (3%) of recurring local service revenues, less uncollectibles, received by such company from subscribers located within the City of Hahira. Said occupational license tax shall be paid in quarterly installments, each of which shall be due on or before the last day of the second month following the end of each calendar quarter and shall be based on recurring local service revenues billed during such calendar quarter.

The first payment under this Ordinance shall be based on revenues billed between the effective date of this Ordinance and the end of the calendar quarter in which such effective date falls. Any amount of license tax previously paid and absorbed by a telephone company which is applicable to any period subsequent to the effective date of this Ordinance shall be credited against the amounts imposed herein or by subsequent Ordinance.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed. This ordinance may be amended or repealed by subsequent ordinance.

"Recurring local service revenues" shall mean:

- A. Monthly charges for local exchange service, including:
 1. Charges for additional listings and joint users;
 2. The guarantee portion of the charge for semi-public pay station services; and
 3. Charges for local message rate service, including mobile service local messages.
- B. Charges for signaling, data transmission, remote metering and supervisory control, where both terminal points are within the City limits.
- C. All charges for local private line services (except audio and video program transmission service) where both terminals of the private line are within the City limits.
- D. Nothing in this definition shall preclude the charging of a separate franchise fee for the transmission of audio or video programs to customers by CATV companies.

The above ordinance approved and adopted this 6th day of April 2000.
